

AP United States History

Timeline # 7 – Third Quarter

The Gilded Age

Revision 12/29/10

UNIT SCHEDULE: Note: Though the unit presentation is already posted and each day is planned as below, we may conduct some group activities instead of traditional class discussion format and may use Pojer's Power Point series instead of mine.

Date	Topic / Events	Readings and Tasks due before class
Dec. 2010 (DONE)	Gilded Age Politics New South & Segregation	Kennedy, Ch. 23 AMSCO, Ch. 16 (317-324) AMSCO, Ch. 19
Tue. 1/4 (D) Wed. 1/5 (E)	Writing Review and Research Activity (Lab 213) Review writing / paper comments Activity on Gilded Age / Industrialization	(Kennedy, Ch. 23 was already covered before Midterm Exams)
Thu. 1/6	Re-cap Gilded Age Politics and the "New South" / receive completed handouts for Kennedy's Ch. 23 Begin discussion of "Taking the Lead in Industry" [Assign groups for seminar]	Grange Ten Commandments Reading Kennedy, Chapter 24 AMSCO, Chapter 17
Fri. 1/7	"Taking the Lead in Industry"	Kennedy, Chapter 24 AMSCO, Chapter 17 Gompers Reading (see below) Carnegie Reading (see below)
Mon. 1/10	Kennedy, Chapter 24 Reading Quiz* *could also include primary source readings above "Moving to the Cities" – will use resources from Pojer's PowerPoint site	Finish Kennedy 24 and AMSCO 17 Begin Kennedy, Chapter 25 AMSCO, Chapter 18
Tue. 1/11 (D) Wed. 1/12 (E)	Finish PPT series Seminar on Late 19th Century Urbanization	Kennedy, Chapter 25 AMSCO, Chapter 18
Thu. 1/13	Wrap-up and Review Discuss 3 rd Quarter Paper Assignment
Fri. 1/14	EXAMINATION # 7 (Online assignment due by end of day) Note: Exam will contain questions from primary source readings	(AP Review Activity # 4 will be assigned after the exam)
Mon. 1/17	MARTIN LUTHER KING DAY – NO CLASSES

ASSIGNMENTS: FOLLOW THESE INSTRUCTIONS CAREFULLY!

1. Complete the multiple choice questions only (16-31) for Chapters 24 and 25 online and submit via e-mail to historyclass@broachweb.com. Make sure that you send a copy to yourself in case I do not receive the submission. Also, you should label the subject line as follows: Last Name, First Initial – Ch #. (For example, if I were sending this, my subject line would be Broach, M – Ch 24)

PRIMARY SOURCE READINGS:

Samuel Gompers:

http://www.classzone.com/cz/books/americans05/resources/pdfs/psource/TAS03_14_452_PS.pdf

Ten Commandments of the Grange:

<http://historymatters.gmu.edu/d/5027>

Andrew Carnegie, On Wealth (Read only "p20" to end)

<http://facweb.furman.edu/~benenson/docs/carnegie.htm>

AP HINTS... The authors of the AP exam do love this time period. Pay close attention to the rise of labor movements, the farmer's alliance and formation of the Populist Party, and the social movements tied to urbanization in the late nineteenth century.

NOTES FOR FUTURE PLANNING...

- There will be an AP review activity assigned after the exam.
- There will be an essay in the next unit.
- Also, due to some time constraints in the second semester, out of class sessions may be necessary between now and April.