

Review for Exam 3: Constitution to War of 1812

- How does Kennedy describe the American Revolution?
- Understand major agreements/compromises at the Constitutional Convention:
  - Virginia Plan/New Jersey Plan → Great Compromise
  - Compromises on slavery
  - Commercial Compromise
- What did the Constitution include and exclude?
- What was the purpose of the Electoral College?
- How was the Constitution constructed – was every delegate 100% pleased with the outcome?
- What did the Federalist papers describe? (Know especially Federalist # 51 from your reading)
- What was the main argument of the Anti-Federalists?
- Why was the Bill of Rights adopted?
- Aspects of Hamilton's financial programs / groups favored
- What caused the Whiskey Rebellion (1794)? (or, why did they rebel?)
- Emergence of political parties (and why it was not expected)
- Washington's Neutrality Proclamation
- Jay Treaty and reactions
- Pinckney's Treaty
- Washington's Farewell Address
- XYZ Affair; Undeclared war with France ("Quasi-War")
- Alien & Sedition Acts
- Election of 1800
  - Major debates in this election
  - How can this be considered revolutionary?
- Thomas Jefferson's political philosophies
- Louisiana Purchase – details!
- Louis & Clark Expedition
- How is the revolt in San Dominique (Haiti) in 1803 significant to U.S. History?
- Be familiar with the slide on slave revolts, etc.
- Marbury v. Madison
- Problems in the Jefferson administration: foreign and domestic
- What was Thomas Jefferson's final foreign relations reaction to problems with the British and French? Which group of Americans opposed this action? What happened?
- Non-Intercourse Act; Macon's Bill No. 2
- Who were the War Hawks? Regions represented?
- Know the major aspects of the War of 1812, especially the Canadian campaign, the Battles of Tippecanoe, Horseshoe Bend, Washington, and New Orleans. How was the war fought? Was the nation united? Who was William Henry Harrison? Who was Andrew Jackson?
- What was the Hartford Convention?
- Know all aspects of the Treaty of Ghent.
- VERY IMPORTANT: Know major social history topics