

Ch 18 General Items to Review

Jingoism

Imperialism

Annexation

Alfred T. Mahan, The Influence of Sea Power

Annexation

William Henry Seward

James Blaine (as Sec of State)

Richard Olney (as Sec of State)

Yellow journalism

Cuban Second War for Independence (Jose Martí, 1895)

de Lôme letter

USS Maine

Teller Amendment

George Dewey

Platt Amendment

Foraker Act

War in the Philippines

John Hay

Sphere of influence

Open Door Policy

Boxer Rebellion (US Troops + European and Japanese Troops)

Roosevelt Corollary to Monroe Doctrine (major message?)

Russo-Japanese War (no US inv.)

Treaty of Portsmouth (Nobel Prize for TR)

Dollar Diplomacy (Taft's foreign policy)

John J. Pershing / Pancho Villa

Moral or "missionary" diplomacy

Concepts:

Why expand in world affairs?

Venezuela border dispute – example of enforcing the Monroe Doctrine

Events that led to Spanish-American War

How did journalists cause war?

Results of the Spanish-American War

Purpose/importance of the Open Door Policy

TR's expansion of power (modern presidency)

Importance of the Panama Canal

Beliefs of anti-imperialists